

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

JANE DOE,

No. C 07-05596 SI

Plaintiff,

ORDER RE: PLAINTIFF'S MOTION FOR AN EXTENSION OF TIME

v.

CITY OF SAN MATEO, et al.

Defendants.

On January 11, 2011, plaintiff filed a motion for extension of time to oppose defendants' motions for summary judgment. Plaintiff's opposition is currently due on Friday, January 14, 2011. Plaintiff has requested a sixty-day extension of time. She requests the extension of time because she is pro se, because she was on vacation for over two of the weeks since defendants filed their motion, and because she was ill for one week since then.

Defendants oppose plaintiff's request. They argue that plaintiff has already caused significant delay in this case and has not prosecuted it diligently, that she was on notice as of November 10, 2010 that her opposition brief(s) would be due this Friday, and that she fails to explain why she was unable to work while on vacation. Additionally, defendants argue that they will be prejudiced by any extension of time that would cause the current hearing date of February 4, 2011, to be continued, as trial is currently set for February 28, 2011. Defendants argue that moving the trial would cause them financial hardship.

The Court hereby GRANTS IN PART and DENIES IN PART plaintiff's motion. (Doc. 399.) Plaintiff's opposition brief(s) are due at 5:00 p.m. on Friday, January 21, 2011. Defendants' reply briefs are due at 5:00 p.m. on Friday, January 28, 2011. The hearing on defendants' motion for summary judgement remains scheduled as before, for 9:00 a.m. on February 4, 2011. The pretrial conference remains scheduled for 3:30 p.m. on February 22, 2011; trial remains scheduled for 8:30 a.m. on February 28, 2011.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated: January 13, 2011

SUSAN ILLSTON
United States District Judge